

Psalm 23 In Other Words

...How Hannah sees Jesus

The LORD is my Daddy,
He won't let me
 go without anything I need.
He puts me down for naps
 in a warm, comfortable bed.
He makes sure my needs are met in a safe way.
When I'm fussy He comforts me,
 and I am at peace.
He teaches me how to behave
 so I will be successful and not be a disgrace to Him.
The world can be a dangerous place,
 but I will go explore it confidently,
 because You, Daddy,
 keep an eye on me.
You set examples for me
 and set limits for me,
 and that makes me feel safe.
Sometimes my friends hurt my feelings,
 but at home, especially around
 the family dinner table,
 I feel totally accepted and cared for.
You do special things for me that show me how much you love me.
 I'm the luckiest kid in the world!
I believe my life in the future will be as good and safe and satisfying
 as it is right now.
But no matter where the future takes me,
 dear Daddy,
 I'll always be close to You.

Copyright 1995 Julie Sorenson

